Permission to Use Pictures or likenesses

Without consideration for value or expectation of compensation, I hereby give The Clarksville High School Band Booster Club the absolute right and permission to publish, copyright, and use pictures of me in which I may be included in whole or in part, individually or in a group, composite or retouched in character or form. This permission to publish is limited to printed materials or electronic media used for the purpose of promoting the Clarksville High School Band and/or its activities and such permission shall not be reassigned to any person or entity.

At no time will any photograph or likeness described herein be used in a manner that is degrading to the subject, nor will any photograph ever be used in conjunction with or for the purpose of pornographic material.

I hereby release and discharge the photographer of these images and The Clarksville High School Band Booster Club and its representatives from any and all claims and demands arising out of or in connection with the use of the photographs or likenesses, including without limitation any and all claims for libel or invasion of privacy.
